

World Cystic Fibrosis Day

8th September, 2025

Cystic Fibrosis Day is a special opportunity to raise awareness about this challenging genetic condition among doctors. At CHAB the day was marked with vibrant colors, symbolizing hope, strength and unity. Two insightful presentations highlighted the science, challenges and progress in managing cystic fibrosis remaining us of the importance of early diagnosis advanced therapies and community support.